HRI's Annual Online Auction

Does your dog shake like a leaf when it storms and thunders? Does he or she shiver and try to shrink into the woodwork during Fourth of July fireworks? Does he or she pant and drool during car rides?

Our sweet pups are the sunshine of our lives, so finding a sun catcher with a beautiful Havanese on it became our mission. We searched high and low and found these amazing diamond-shaped art glass pieces in Maryland. Each begins with a painting by Sara, who is an artist extraordinaire, incredible dog lover, and supporter of rescue. Through what seems like a nearly magical process, the painting is reproduced, reduced, and reappears on these special pieces.

Each comes with a gold metallic ribbon for hanging and a suction cup with hook. The piece is two-sided and is 4" in size.

Letter from Home - Mika is a Hero

For Mika, a little girl that had been moved around a lot, her foster home was her first loving home where she felt the security a pup should have. Mika seemed very apprehensive and scared on her three-hour journey to her new home.

I strapped Mika in her seat belt in the back seat and buckled myself in next to her. Some of my friends were kind enough to drive, so we could use this time to get acquainted. We bonded immediately, and after those three hours, I was completely in love!

She quickly made my house her own and got used to people in the neighborhood. She runs up to everyone she sees and wants to be petted. She has become everyone's favorite dog and everyone loves her.

One of Mika's favorite people to visit on our walks was our neighbor, Seymour. She would run up the stairs to his door to see him. Due to health issues, Seymour moved into a nursing home. Not knowing this, Mika continued to run up the stairs to visit. She missed Seymour and didn't understand why he wasn't there anymore. Seymour missed Mika, too - so he asked me to bring her for a visit. When we got off the elevator at the nursing home, Mika was on a mission! SHE led the way to find her Seymour. Even though she had never been there before, she took me down two halls and around a corner directly into Seymour's room. She knew exactly where to go and where to find him. She put her paws up on his bed, just ecstatic to see him.

When I put her on the bed, she immediately snuggled in and laid her head on his legs., she was perfectly content with this. I went to move her, thinking it may be uncomfortable for Seymour. He was very quick to set me straight when he said, "Leave her alone, she is fine where she is!"

Seymour has two pictures of Mika on his bedside table. Mika and I go to visit him as often as we can. I don't know who enjoys the visits more, Mika or Seymour.
