The Taste of Spring

Adoption Corner: Baxter in Texas

Say hello to 5-year-old Baxter! He's an 11 pound love muffin who shows how much he loves you by giving you a nice, sweet licking on the leg, ankle, foot, arm -- wherever he can reach. You can cuddle him on your shoulder just like a sleeping baby or smother him with kisses. His foster mom says Baxter is the perfect dog.

Baxter always wants to be with his humans or his canine foster brothers. Every time he sees you, he welcomes you by standing on his hind legs and hopping along the floor with his front paws outstretched, as if he wants to give you a hug or to be picked up. He is house trained, leash trained, doggie door trained, and harness and car seat trained. He knows "sit," "down", "stay" and he spins and dances for his favorite treat of raw veggies.

Baxter is a terrific guard dog and tends to be very protective of his humans and his territory. He enjoys patrolling, so he is always aware. He doesn't like to be caught off-guard, and sometimes this seems like aggressive behavior, but he is just being protective. His foster family is working with him on manners and he is very attentive, as he has a true desire to understand what you are saying. He is learning that his humans can be in charge, and he is happy to be relieved of the responsibility of being in charge of everything.

Baxter is confident, strong and fearless. He can jump on and off anything his Golden Retriever foster brothers can. Baxter and his Havanese foster brother spend hours wrestling and chasing each other in the yard at top speed. He can always dominate his younger foster brother, but he is so wonderful, every now and then Baxter happily lays on his back and lets his brother have the upper hand.

Baxter wants a family he can love who will clearly see how wonderful he is. His wish list includes a family that can be in charge and help him maintain his manners. His new family will need to correct unwanted behavior kindly and firmly. Baxter wants to please. Teach him what to do, help him to remember a few times and he's got it. He wants a family that will take him places, too, because Baxter loves to ride in the car.

He would also love a canine brother or sister to play with. He needs a fenced yard because his fearless sense of adventure can entice him to wander.

Baxter is being fostered in TX.
